

Computer_graphics_animation_15x15_2008-10-09

B.B. Huria

Across

- 2 An editable line that objects follow during the course of an animation (9,4)
- 6 Abbreviation for the primary colours of light (3)
- 7 To convert an object-oriented image into a bitmapped image (9)
- 9 Video format used in USA, Canada & Japan (4)
- 11 NTSC stands for National Television ____ Committee (9)
- 13 Founded in 1984, it is a US company dealing in hardware, software, and service offerings used to create the Internet solutions that make networks possible. (5)
- 14 A method of shading surfaces in which the incident light colour and intensity are calculated for a series of points along each edge of a polygon and then interpolated across the entire polygon (5,7)

- 16 ____s are used to calculate the orientation of a surface with respect to a light source or view point. (6)
- 19 PAL stands for ____ alternate line (5)
- 20 A piece of useful information (4)
- 21 An undesirable pattern created by the optical meshing of halftone dots when the halftone screens are superimposed in one another (5)
- 22 Being or related to zero, esp. (mathematics) having zero norm or only zero elements (4)
- 23 PAL stands for phase alternate ____ (4)

Down

- 1 The code that identifies where a piece of information is stored (7)
- 3 Relating to or using sight (5)
- 4 The process of assigning hierarchy to objects (9)
- 5 Position of a colour along the colour spectrum (3)
- 6 A geometric transformation that causes points to be re-oriented about an axis (8)
- 7 The number of times per second the display screen is scanned (7,4)
- 8 Prepare by correcting, revising, or adapting (4)
- 10 Video format used in France & Eastern Europe (5)
- 12 Using different shades of the same colour to create an impression of 3D (7)

14 A closed plane figure formed by three or more line segments that do not cross over each other (7)

- 15 That's what the letter 'F' stands for in 'FPS' (5)
- 17 A free-form, 3D object (5)
- 18 One side of a polygon (4)
- 19 A video format used in Western Europe, England and India (3)