

Poultry_15x15_2008-10-18

B.B. Huria

Across

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 The top section of the body from the base of the neck to the base of the tail. (4) 3 The horny protuberance at the juncture of the head and upper bill in African and Chinese Geese. (4) 5 The hollow stem of a feather. (5) | 7 A colloquial term for any breed of poultry. (4) 8 A tightly folded; slim, tapering, whip-like tail. (4,4) 11 The fleshy red crest on the head of the domestic fowl and other gallinaceous birds. (4) 13 Filled with vascular sinuses and capable of becoming | distended and rigid as the result of being filled with blood. (9) 14 The long stiff wing feathers growing from the middle wing segments, next to the primaries. (11) 18 The skull and face. (4) 21 Limb including the upper and lower thigh and shank. (3) 24 A young | domestic cock; not older than one year. (8) 25 Adult male chicken. (4) 26 Small wild or domesticated web-footed broad-billed swimming bird usually having a depressed body and short legs. (4) 27 A general term applied to all domesticated fowl, including |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

chickens,
turkeys, and
waterfowl, etc.
(7)

that is slender
and flattened. (4)

19 Long slender
feather on the
necks of e.g.
turkeys and
pheasants. (6)

Down

2 The fleshy
protuberances on
the naked
portions of the head, face and
neck. (9)

20 The median
ridge on the breastbone of
birds that fly. (4)

4 Horny projecting
mouth of a bird.
(4)

22 Web-footed
long-necked
typically
gregarious
migratory
aquatic birds
usually larger
and less aquatic
than ducks. (5)

6 The branch of
morphology that
deals with the structure of
animals. (7)

7 A lineage or
race. (5)

23 The skin around
and below the
eyes on either
side of the head
of a fowl. (4)

9 Luster, usually
green or purple
in the plumage.
(5)

10 The round black
center of the iris
through which
light is admitted
to the retina. (5)

12 A cluster of feathers hanging
from the upper
throat of some
fowl. (5)

15 An imperfection
in a bodily
system. (6)

16 The upper side
of the juncture of
the wing and
body. (8)

17 A bird's beak