Across

- 3 An offensive player who plays largely around the six-metre line; also called a "line player". (5)
- 5 A boundary line marking a side of the court. (8)
- 7 A throw-in from a goalkeeper to a team-mate, restarting play after the goalkeeper or the opposition last touched the ball before it passed over the back line. (4,5)
- 10 A player, usually tall and a good jumper, who shoots from the backcourt. (7)
- 11 A card signifying the referee has warned a player about an infraction. (6,4)
- 13 An arcing line that defines the goal area; also called the "six-metre line". (4,4,4)

- 15 The line the ball must cross to score a goal. (4,4)

- 16 Fresh start awarded for a minor offence by the opponent. (4,5)

- 17 A throw from the side of the court to restart play after the ball has gone over the sidelines. (5-2)

- 18 A seven-metre shot at goal defended only by the goalkeeper and awarded for a serious infraction or because the defence illegally spoiled a clear chance to score a goal; also called a "penalty throw". (5-5,5)

- 19 An arcing dotted line extending nine metres from the goal, marking where an attacking team resumes play after being fouled inside the line; also called the "nine-metre line". (4-5,4)

Down

- 1 When a player is sent out from the game with no replacement allowed. (9)

- 2 A seven-metre shot at goal defended only by the goalkeeper and awarded for a serious offence or because the defence illegally spoiled a clear chance to score a goal; also called a "seven-metre throw". (7,5)

- 4 A line across the end of the court, but not including the goal line; also called the "back line". (5,4,4)

- 6 The D-shaped area extending six metres from the goal and occupied only by the goalkeeper. (4,4)

- 8 Similar to a jump ball in basketball, a throw into the air by the referee so a player on each team can jump and try to gain control of the ball. (7,5)

- 9 A player who plays largely along the side of the court. (4)

- 12 An offensive player's throw from a corner at the offensive end of the court, after the ball has gone over the back line after being touched by a defender other than the goalkeeper. (6,5)

- 13 The player in charge of defending the goal. (10)

- 14 A throw from the centre line to a team-mate at least three metres away and behind the line, used to restart play. (5-3)
