

Sports_Pentathlon_11x11_2003-09-11

B.B. Huria

Across

- 2 French for the playing strip where a fencing bout occurs; also called a "strip". (5)
- 4 A prompt that a rider gives a horse, using the hands, legs, voice or body weight. (3)
- 7 The playing strip where a fencing bout occurs; also called a "piste". (5)
- 10 To break contact between blades, done by one fencer passing his or her blade under the opponent's blade. (5)

(9)

- 12 The internal diameter of a gun bore. (5)
- 13 In the riding discipline, the thin strip that defines the boundary of a water jump. (4)
- 15 The fastest gait of a horse, essentially equivalent to running. (6)
- 16 A swimmer's intermediate time in a race, registered every 50 metres, to judge the swimmer's pace. (5)

Down

- 1 To thrust or lunge in fencing. (4)
- 3 A series of shots, normally five or ten. (6)
- 5 A counterattack by a fencer who just has blocked an attack by the opponent. (7)
- 6 The interior diameter of a gun barrel. (4)
- 8 To attack an opponent a second time in fencing, after the opponent fails to counterattack. (8)
- 9 To make contact blade-to-blade in fencing. (6)
- 11 Any of a horse's characteristic motions, including, in order of speed, a walk, trot, canter or gallop. (4)
- 14 1. A target that has been hit and broken by the shooter. 2. In fencing, a point scored by a touch with the tip of the blade of a foil or epee or the edge of the blade of a sabre against any part of the opponent's body in the target. (3)