

Sports_Cricket_17x17_2003-09-03

Across

- 1 A back foot shot with cross bat towards square or behind the wicket on the off side. (3)
- 4 A fast intimidating full toss high up to the head of the batsman. (6)
- 6 First class match, generally of 5 days duration. (4)
- 7 When the wicketkeeper removes a bails from the wicket with the ball, while the striker is out of his ground. (7)
- 8 The material used for marking the boundary of the field. (5)
- 11 A fast low bouncing ball leaving the righthanded batsman sharply after pitching. (3,6)
- 13 Any of the two officials on the field, who control the entire proceedings of the game. (6)
- 16 Nickname of Sir Donald Bradman. (3)
- 18 Sequence of consecutive overs bowled from one end by one bowler. (5)
- 20 Fielding position on the boundary. (4)
- 21 Unintended contact of the ball with bat's edge, which might result into a catch at slips. (4)
- 22 Risky shot played by pulling the ball that is chest high or more. (4)
- 23 Unorthodox merciless batting shot. (4)
- 25 A batsman is declared XXXXXX by the umpire if the fielders hit the ball at the wickets before the

- |  |  |   |
|--|--|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>26 A substitute. (7,3)</li> <li>27 The main central playing area of the cricket ground (22 yards long and 10 feet wide). (5)</li> <li>28 Lucky four resulting from inside or bottom edge of the bat while attempting a big hit. (6,3)</li> <li>29 The gamut of fielders positioned within 30 yards radius. (7)</li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>3 An Australian term for googly. (5)</li> <li>4 Fast short ball which is made to rise briskly. (7)</li> <li>5 Request to the umpire to give the batsman out. (6)</li> <li>6 Match that ends with equal score by both sides. (3)</li> <li>9 Tarpaulins used protection from rain of the pitch and field from rain. (6)</li> <li>10 When the bat is help perpendicular to the ground. (8,3)</li> <li>12 A ball that hits the pitch at just the desired length. (4,6)</li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>14 A shot taken on back foot with cross bat and directed into the sector between long - leg and mid - on. (4)</li> <li>15 Thicker part of the pads for protection of the knee. (4,4)</li> <li>17 To mark the point on popping crease as resting position for the bat while batting. (4,5)</li> <li>19 The horizontal distance travelled by the ball from bowler to the ground where it pitches. (6)</li> <li>24 Opposite of off side. (2,4)</li> </ol> |
|--|--|---|

Down

- 1 When a batsman is given out after the ball he hit has been caught by a fielder before it touched the ground. (6,3)
- 2 When a new batsman