

Business_Travel_13x13_2003-03-28

B.B. Huria

Across

- 1 A valid ticket that does not specify flight numbers, dates, or times, which are required to be arranged in due course. (4,6)
- 5 A refund of some fraction of the amount paid. (6)
- 8 A bed on a ship or train; usually in tiers. (5)
- 9 The rear portion of a ship. (5)
- 10 The rate at which data is transferred (as by a modem). (3)
- 11 A reservation. (7)
- 12 A lower hotel rate negotiated by a specific company for use of its employees and guests. (9,4)

- 13 Software program used to travel on the Web. (7)

Down

- 2 The earliest time at which a room will be available in a hotel. (5-2,4)
- 3 Luggage that exceeds the allowed limits for weight, size, or number of pieces. (6,7)
- 4 A computer network consisting of a worldwide network of computer networks that use the TCP/IP network protocols to facilitate data transmission and exchange. (10)

- 6 The smallest unit (binary digit) of computerized data. (3)
- 7 A small restaurant serving beer and wine as well as food; usually cheap. (9)
- 8 The travel fare before taxes and commissions. (4,4)
- 11 Compartment in an automobile that carries luggage. (4)