

Crossword _ Vocabulary _ 17x17 _ 2008-10-10

B.B. Huria

Across

- 1 A game in which the answer is split into two or more parts indicated separately (7)
- 4 A horizontal or vertical series of white squares in a grid, representing one answer (5)
- 6 A Cell in a Grid usually colored black or gray (5)
- 9 A square fully checked grid containing no blocks (4,6)
- 10 A thick line separating the Lights in a barred grid (3)
- 11 In a conventional crossword, the _____ forms the whole Clue (10)
- 12 A type of wordplay

used in Cryptic Clues in which the answer is formed from one word contained inside another (9)

- 13 The British equivalent of a diagramless puzzle (5,7)
- 17 A rectangular arrangement of squares into which the crossword answers are entered (4)
- 18 A creator of a crossword puzzle (8)
- 19 An alternative term for Cell (6)
- 21 Exact correspondence of design on opposite sides of a grid (8)
- 22 That's how the crossword used to be called originally (9)

Down

- 1 A question or hint that the solver uses to find the answer (4)
- 2 Literally, a beehive and also referred as an early dictionary of English, French, Latin, etc. (7)
- 3 Solution to a Clue (6)
- 5 Any word or phrase whose second half repeats the first; like bye-bye (8)
- 7 Crossword study or general wordsmithism (14)
- 8 An alternative term for Compiler (6)
- 10 A grid in which the Lights are separated by Bars (6,4)
- 11 A crossword where only the dimensions of the grid are shown
- 14 A puzzle where you fill a square grid with words reading the same down as across (8)
- 15 A single square in a Grid (4)
- 16 Alphabetical _____ - A crossword with exactly 26 answers, each one starting with a different letter of the alphabet (6)
- 20 An unchecked letter (4)

and the solver must work out where the lights occur (11)