

Library_Management_13x13_2003-11-25

B.B. Huria

Across

1 ISBN - International Standard Book XXXXXX; a unique ten digit number assigned to every printed book. (6)

3 Electronic messages sent from a user on one computer to a user on another computer. (1-4)

5 A brief summary of an article published in a periodical. (8)

6 Money that is owed by a patron as penalty if library materials are not returned or when recalled. (4)

8 To borrow library materials for use and record that action in the item and patron records. (5,3)

9 ISBN - International Standard XXXX Number; a unique ten digit number assigned to every printed book. (4)

12 An organized body of related information. (8)

13 Of or relating to a combinatorial system devised by George Boole that combines propositions with the logical operators AND and OR and IF THEN and EXCEPT and NOT. (7)

14 All of the identical copies of something offered to the public at the same time. (7)

15 The writer of a book or article. (6)

Down

2 A record that describes items in the collection; such as call number, author, title, publication information, paging, subject headings, etc. (3,6)

3 A reference work (often in several volumes) containing articles on various topics

(often arranged in alphabetical order) dealing with the entire range of human knowledge or with some particular specialty. (13)

4 Where the physical item is housed. (8)

7 A unique ten digit number assigned to every printed book. (4)

10 Electronic device for reading bar codes. (7)

11 To return borrowed items and record that action in the item and patron records. (5-2)