

Pharmacy_13x13_2008-04-04

B.B. Huria

Across

- 1 A spontaneous loss of consciousness caused by insufficient blood to the brain. (7)
- 3 Late stage of the illness caused by infection with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV). (4)
- 7 Swelling due to excessive fluid in the tissues of the body. (5)
- 10 Semi-solid substance that is generally used in soothing irritated surfaces. (3)
- 11 A sweet flavoured liquid (usually containing a small amount of alcohol) used in compounding medicines to be taken by mouth in order to mask an unpleasant taste. (6)

- 12 Form of dyspnea in which the person can breathe comfortably only when standing or sitting erect. (9)
- 13 Drug used to treat worm infestations. (13)

- 15 A severely deep and prolonged unconsciousness. (4)
- 16 A contagious skin infection caused by the itch mite. (7)
- 17 A group of organisms grown from a single parent cell. (6)

Down

- 2 The process of wave-like muscle contractions of the alimentary tract that moves food along. (11)
- 4 Digestive substance secreted by glands in the mouth that begins breaking down food particles as they are chewed and swallowed. (6)
- 5 The manner in which bacteria or malignant cells spread to other parts of the body. (10)
- 6 A situation brought about by excessive acid in the blood and tissues of the body. (8)
- 8 A medication that works to expel or remove mucus from the respiratory system. (11)

- 9 Ingestion of air by swallowing. (10)
- 14 I in AIDS stands for. (6)
- 15 The basic independent unit of human and animal anatomy. (4)