- 20 Making a ship is as much an ____ as is science. (3)
- 21 A maritime contract (now almost obsolete) by which the owner of a ship borrows money for equipping or repairing the vessel and, for a definite term, pledges the ship as security--it being stipulated that if the ship be lost in the specified voyage or period, by any of the perils enumerated, the lender shall lose his money. A similar contract creating a security interest in the cargo is called a respondentia. (8)
- 22 A ____ bill of lading is issued when goods have been loaded aboard the ship. (7)
- 23 Acronym for less than a container load. Here the carrier takes the goods from two or more shippers, packs them into the container and seals it. (3)
- 24 The doctrine requiring courts of one state to recognize the laws of foreign states and judgments of competent courts of such states. (6)
- 25 Et cetera. (3)
- Down
- 1 A structure extending into a body of water to direct and confine the stream or tidal flow to a selected channel. (5)
- 3 A record book carried aboard a ship in which all significant events relating to the journey are recorded by the ship's officers authorized to make such entries. (3)
- 5 An ____ bill of lading provides for delivery of the goods to the order of a specified person, by words such as "consigned to XYZ Co. Ltd. or to order or assigns". (5)
- 6 A rule of evidence whereby a person is barred from denying the truth of a fact that has already been settled. (8)
- 7 Under this method a ship is chartered for a one-way voyage between specific ports with a specified cargo at a negotiated rate of freight. (6,7)
- 9 Any accident involving two or more vessels. (9)
- 12 An open vessel with a handle and a spout for pouring. (4)
- 13 Loss or damage caused to the ship or cargo by the wilful act or the master or seamen. (8)
- 14 The sum charged for riding in a conveyance. (4)
- 18 A principle of fundamental fairness and justice. (6)
- 19 Seizure of a ship (and sometimes cargo and/or freight) by an admiralty court to provide pre-judgment security for the plaintiff's maritime claim. (6)
- 21 Release after a security has been paid. (4)
