

Skin_Disorders_15x15_2008-10-18

B.B. Huria

Across

- 3 The human skin has enormous _____ of touch. (5)
- 6 _____ Dermatitis: A skin disorder characterized by intense itching, scaling and thickening of the skin. (6)
- 10 Eruption on the skin occurring as a symptom of a disease. (8)
- 11 Candidiasis of the oral cavity. (6)
- 12 A flat, discoloured spot. (5)
- 16 Double sulphate of aluminium. (4)

- 17 Damage inflicted by burning. (4)

- 19 A white crystalline substance with a bitter aftertaste; used in making aspirin. (9,4)

- 20 Burns due to contact with an electrical current. (10,5)

- 22 Skin on top of head. (5)

Down

- 1 Bloodsucking insects parasitic on warm-blooded animals. (4)
- 2 Small rounded protuberance. (4)

- 4 A person with special knowledge or ability who performs skilfully. (6)

- 5 Skin condition characterized by tender red nodules on the shins and legs. (8,7)

- 7 Small anatomically normal sac or bladderlike structure. (4)

- 8 _____ cell: A type of cell found in the deepest layer of the epithelium. (5)

- 9 Any property of skin detected by the olfactory system. (5)

- 13 An inflammation of body tissue

characterized by fever and swelling and redness and pain. (10)

- 14 Chronic ulcer of the skin caused by prolonged pressure on it (as in bedridden patients). (3,5)

- 15 Nettle rash. (9)

- 17 Painful sore with a hard core filled with pus. (4)

- 18 Localized collection of pus surrounded by inflamed tissue. (7)

- 21 The most common skin cancer in humans (Abbr.). (3)